The Loss of Frost Thorne, one of the Victims of the Mohawk Dis-aster. Philadelphia Day, 22d.] Most sad and touching is the loss of Frost Thorne, one of the vic-tims of the yacht Mohawk, and husband of Lily Vining Davenport. 200 were made captives, and in every case the women were brutally treated.

After a brief campaign, the Indian camp opposite the mouth of the Chippeway was taken on September 26th, and the white captives released. Little Crow and some 200 times of the yacht Mohawk, and husband of Lily Vining Davenport. For some time a resident of Philadelphia, Mr. Thorne has in our midst many friends who will deeply lament the loss of one who has passed out of life so suddenly, and by a death so terrible and appalling.
